

THE HONORABLE BARBARA J. ROTHSTEIN

IN THE UNITED STATE DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

JENNIFER MILLER, CHRISTOPHER CAIN,
KIMBERLY HALO, KELLY KIMMEY, JUMA
LAWSON, SHARON PASCHAL, and PHILIP
SULLIVAN, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

AMAZON.COM, INC., and AMAZON
LOGISTICS, INC.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:21-cv-00204-BJR

UNOPPOSED MOTION REGARDING
PAGE LIMITS FOR DEFENDANTS
AMAZON.COM, INC. AND AMAZON
LOGISTICS, INC.'S OPPOSITION TO
PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR CLASS CERTIFICATION

1 Pursuant to the agreement between the Parties and LCR 7(f), Defendants Amazon.com,
2 Inc. and Amazon Logistics, Inc. (“Amazon”) move for leave to file an overlength brief in
3 opposition to Plaintiffs’ Motion for Class Certification (the “Motion”), Dkt. 110, which is due
4 April 14, 2025.

5 On January 14, 2025, Plaintiffs filed their Unopposed Motion for Leave to File Overlength
6 Brief. Dkt. 105. In Plaintiffs’ unopposed motion, they acknowledged that “this is a matter of 7 extraordinary complexity” given the “complexity of the facts and issues involved in this
8 proceeding. Id. at 1-2. On January 16, 2025, the Court granted Plaintiffs’ Unopposed Motion For 9 Leave to File Overlength Brief, permitting Plaintiffs to file a combined motion and memorandum
10 in excess of the 15-page limit imposed by this Court’s Standing Order for Civil Cases (II.A), and 11 containing up to 8,400 words. Dkt. 106. On January 21, 2025, Plaintiffs filed their overlength
12 Motion and Memorandum in Support.

13 Given Plaintiffs’ contention that this matter is extraordinarily complex and Amazon’s need
14 to respond to Plaintiffs’ many arguments in their overlength Motion and to demonstrate why 15 Plaintiffs’ motion should be denied, Amazon requests the same extension of the word limit for its 16 forthcoming Opposition brief. In addition, LCR 7(f)(4) provides that “[i]f the court grants leave
17 to file an over-length motion, the brief in opposition will automatically be allowed an equal number
18 of additional pages.” Accordingly, Amazon respectfully requests that it be permitted the same
19 8,400 word limit for its Opposition to Plaintiffs’ Motion for Class Certification granted to 20 Plaintiffs’ for their Motion for Class Certification.
